

Knights of Columbus

Standard Rental Agreement Disclaimer

A special provision should be added to regular Knights of Columbus Building Rental Agreements:

“ In the event that the named party as Lessee pursuant to the herein Knights of Columbus Building Agreement is an and/or straw for, or is engaged with a campaign committee for a particular person running for, or an organization which has views, mission or philosophy in any way different that the views of the herein Knights of Columbus and/or Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus, then upon such disclosure of the same before the Lessee Agreement commences, Lessee shall have the right to terminate such rental agreement, return deposit or lease hold rent to the party who engaged in such lease contract and all of the rights of both Lessee and Lessor shall be null and void and neither party shall have any recourse against each other”